CHILDREN'S CENTER DAY AT MULBERRY THIS SUNDAY, JUNE 20

A new principal was checking over his school on the first day. Passing the stockroom, he was startled to see the door wide open and teachers going in and out, carrying off books and supplies. The school he came from had a check-out system that required the teachers to indicate what supplies they had obtained. Curious about the practice here he asked the school custodian, "Do you think it's wise to keep the stockroom unlocked and to let the teachers take things without asking?" The custodian responded, "We trust them with the children, don't we?"

This Sunday, we are extending a warm invitation to the families of The Children's Center at Mulberry to join us for worship at 11:00 am. These families "trust us with their children" daily, as we teach them to grow in so many ways, including the ways of Jesus Christ. Some of these children, along with our own, will be singing songs during worship that they have learned together during Vacation Bible School.

This will also be a wonderful opportunity for us to roll out the welcome mat to the families who are touched by our Children's Center ministry. They will not be sitting in reserved areas, but will be visitors in our midst. I know you will make a special effort during our fellowship time to seek them out, welcome them, and even extend an invitation to return to be with us again.

WEAR YOUR NAME TAG; help them know you and our warm fellowship and worship as we open the doors of our church, and the doors of our hearts, to them and their children. "They trust us with their children, don't they?" How wonderful for them to know this is also a place they can trust their spirits to God.

I look forward to seeing you at Mulberry this Sunday, where all things are possible, in Christ.

Tommy

* Our new associate, Ben Gosden, begins his ministry this week. He and his wife Katie will be in worship this Sunday, and will participate with the Young Adult Sunday School Class. Be present as we welcome them on their first Sunday with us!

Keep Your Eyes On the Grand Old Flag

A grand time was had by all at the recent "Salute to America" fish fry, held on Flag Day. We paid tribute to the dozens of veterans in the audience, and were entertained with special music and a visit from Uncle Sam. We extend a red-white-and-blue thank you to our supported this event with their time, donations, and many prayers. We'd also like to throw a line to champion fish-fryers, Harold Chapman and Ashley Hurt, who fried all the fish for the large crowd.

The Clothing Closet

This Outreach ministry is taking a short summer break. Stay tuned for more details.

The Food Pantry

Hats off to VBS kids at Mulberry, Martha Bowman, and Riverside churches. These great givers collected food for the hungry, and shared it with Macon Outreach this summer. Way to go!
