Plum Pudding News

It's almost time for our infamous Plum Pudding Festival which means it's time for you to grab the plum baby food at the grocery store and get ready to bake a plum pudding cake. I assure you it's a very easy recipe!

We'll need a plum pudding cake from every family this year and we'll need each family to host a table. That simply means you invite family, friends, or others who show up that evening to sit at your table & provide & serve the cake to the guests at your table. All the Dads (or someone else you designate) will bring the plum pudding cake in during the grand plum pudding procession. But you'll learn more about all of that the evening of Dec 6th.

For now, it's enough to make sure your calendar is marked for the Plum Pudding Festival on Sunday, December 6 at 6:00. Parents and children will need to be at the church at 5:00 for rehearsal & hosting instructions.

Your children are hard at work learning their Christmas music to perform for you. It's a fun night, so be sure to invite lots of people to join you for this festive event. If you have questions, please don't hesitate to e-mail me (cambishop@mulberrymethodist.org) or call 745-8601.

Thanks!

PS On the evening of the 6th, please bring your plum pudding cake on a platter ready to be served. If you would, add a little holly or other seasonal greenery to help make it look festive. You'll also need to bring a cake knife and a pitcher to hold the hot wassail.
