Dear Mulberry friends,

Our hearts overflow with gratitude for all the acts of kindness and love, for all the expressions of hope for our future as we discover retirement, and for your extraordinary generosity as you celebrated with us in sending us forth!

We have rambled down Highway 41 to mid-Dooly County and are busy finding all those things we hid from ourselves in moving. Know that our home and our hearts always remain open to you and for you.

*Grace and peace,
Tommy and Karen*
